

Task: T1-110 Locate and Describe the Function of Basic Station Equipment

Employee
Name:

Employee Number:

Instructions:

Complete each activity for an approved trainer. Activities are completed when the trainee can explain, perform, demonstrate, or recognize appropriate activity responses. The trainer initials and dates each successfully completed activity. Activities that are not applicable are marked N/A.

Evaluation Topic	No	Yes
Completes written exam associated with this PE, where applicable.
Completes the OJT associated with this PE, where applicable.
Shows how gas flows into, through, and out of the station during a physical station walk through for each of the station's primary modes of operation. The demonstration includes naming and describing key gas equipment and physically matching the station main gas piping and valves to the station-piping diagram.
Locates, identifies, and understands the basic purpose of the station's electrical and auxiliary equipment.
Locates and knows how and when it is appropriate to operate the emergency shutdown system (ESD).
Demonstrates the proper application and use of personal protective equipment (PPE).

Complete Record Section (next page)

Task: T1-110

Locate and Describe the Function of Basic Station Equipment

Performance Evaluation Record

The employee has been tested on the knowledge, skills, and ability required for

Task: T1-110 Basic Station Equipment

The test was

_____ Successful

_____ Unsuccessful

Evaluator Signature

Date

Employee Signature

Date

Evaluator Information

Evaluator Name: _____

Please Print

Company: _____